Republic of Ireland

We were blessed to spend time with the newly baptized brethren in the Republic of Ireland. Brother Gerard and Sister Bridget were immersed in Yahshua's saving Name on the Sabbath of June 28th, this year of 2025.

They are both very strong in faith and Scripture. Since they are on farmland with animals and they don't have any caretakers for them, it seemed best for them to have us come there. Elder David Brett and his wife Carrie spent time in Bible study and also visited a few castles in the area, with our new brethren.

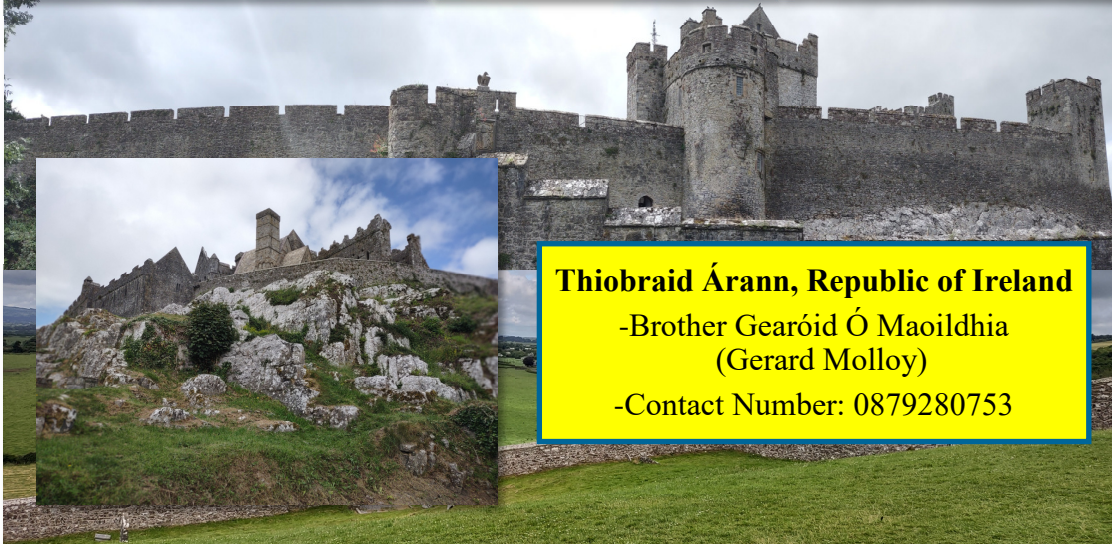

We note that the people were very friendly and that the teenagers in the local towns were clean-cut and respectful. We share a few of the images below, and their contact information, especially for others in Ireland, that we are all blessed by this good news.

Acts 17:11 NASB

"Those who love Me will keep My Word, and
My Father will love them."

Wall of Partition

Discovered at Jerusalem in 1871, a large solid limestone, with capital Greek letters, now located at Istanbul Archeology Museums in Turkey, says “No man of another nation to enter within the fence and enclosure [a]round the Temple, and whoever is caught will have himself to blame that his death ensues.”

Another fragment of stone essentially gave the same warning as in the Israeli Museum. There was red paint originally put in the carved-out letters to give emphasis of the death penalty to any pagan foreigner who wanted to test the sign’s warning.

The wording used in the signs was very specific to the locations on the Temple mount, given by Wikipedia under “Temple Warning Inscription”:

- To hieron (Το ἱερόν), "holy place", the sacred area, to which the forecourt led;
- Peribolou (περίβολος), a wall encompassing the holy terrace within the outer court;
- Tryphaktou (τρύφακτος), a stone barrier across the outer court.

To justify a wall of partition, the Levitical priest as well as the Jewish leaders may have referred to the instructions given in Number 18:7, *But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and inside the veil, and you are to perform service. I am giving you the priesthood as a bestowed service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

Yahshua came to pull down the walls of partitions (dogma) than man has set up (Eph. 2:15).

Question and Answer

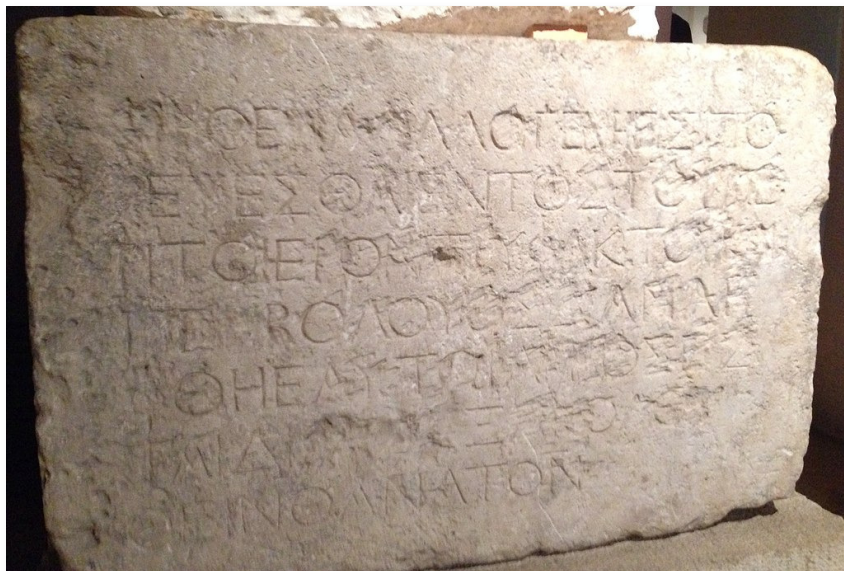

Q: Aren’t the Jews actually Khazars in Israel?

A: We’ve seen a lot of different false teachings over the years come up and this is yet another one being emphasized, we believe, out of racism and hate. Linguists have shown there is no trace of the Khazars language in the Hebrew that the Jews, even the Yiddish Jews, speak and write today. That makes it impossible for the Jews to be Khazarian or descendants thereof. Ask any linguist.

To have a better overview of not only Judah, but of Israel today, we recommend three resources, for detailed critical research done by Yair Davidiy and by Steven M. Collins.

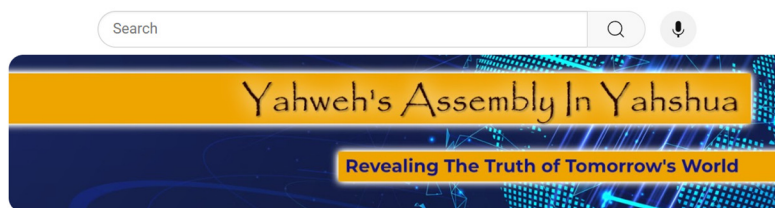

Two books by Yair Davidiy (“The Khazars: Tribe 13” and “Esau: Edomites Today”) and one study in particular by Steven M. Collins (“Khazars and the Modern Jews”) should help. Both authors (one a Judahite and the other a Gentile) give a good overview and a close historical examination of the movement of Northern Israel after the Assyrian captivity in a number of their books, as well as some of Judah’s history after the Babylonian captivity. Their websites are respectively britam.org and stevenmcollins.com.

It should be noted that the first book noted, “...Tribe 13” is a bit of a dig of an older book (The Thirteenth Tribe, by Arthur Koestler), in which the author evidently tried to take some pressure off the Jews (since they are heavily persecuted) by stating they were Khazarian and not actually Jews. This has since taken root with some who refer to his book to try and prove Jews are not Jews. It’s a nonsensical teaching, which, as already mentioned, linguists have seriously debunked and put in the official garbage bin of false teachings.

YAIY Websites

Recently we were going through YAIY's websites, but we realize that not many are able to go directly to them, due to not being on the Internet. We share some of them below, as they help with the outreach and further the work. We are very much appreciative to the work gone into them, much of them being designed from scratch by Brother Keith Willard. Others, like our YouTube channel and Facebook, are maintained and run by Elder David Brett. We are keeping our eyes out for other talented brethren to help with the work. Though we know not many are chosen to do so, we desire to work with others of the same mind and heart to serve Almighty Yahweh. If you get a chance to visit online, here are a few of the websites listed: YAIY (yaiy.org); Facebook (Yahweh's Assembly In Yahshua); New Moon Report (newmoonreport.org); Sacred Name Movement (sacrednamemovement.org); Teens For Yah (teensforyah.org); Sisters For Yah (sistersforyah.org); Kids For Yah (kidsforyah.org)

Alms Fund

Yahweh's Assembly in Yahshua has received requests from brethren who desire to come, out of obedience to the Commandment, to the Feast of Tabernacles. Some, having not yet a knowledge of the second tithe provided for this purpose and others, whose life circumstances in these uncertain times have required their use of monies reserved for attending the commanded Feast, have need as well to have their expenses underwritten. We would extend this appeal to any who have discretionary monies that could be used to underwrite a brother or sister's need to forward their love offering to the Assembly's Alms Fund. May Yahweh bless.

New Moons

If you're standing on top of the world or on the bottom, quite literally, you will be viewing the full moon a little differently. As seen to the right, even the new moons are in reverse, depending on one's location. Think about it this way, when you look at the moon think about what you'd see if you were to stand on your head. This is how others living in the opposite hemisphere would be viewing it, but standing upright, of course.

To the right, the United Kingdom and Australia, we see basically what people are seeing from those locations.

Many are unaware of this, unless they are avid weekend astronomers, who also happen to travel a lot between the two hemispheres.

Even many of us who look for the new moon each month, in America, for example, are unaware that those below the equator see a waxing new moon quite differently than we do, with the horns pointing to the right, rather than to the left.

As we encourage others around the world to also report new moons, as brethren do here (NewMoonReport.org) in America, we thought it would be a good idea to share this info.

It all depends on your location as to how the new moon will look. One thing that doesn't change, is the new moon is always the first visible light shown in a crescent shape, shortly after the sun sets.

Viewing time may be just an hour or so after sunset. Because of this, one needs to be diligent in their efforts as with any Biblical endeavor. Yes, it is Biblical to look for the new moon!
