Yahweh a Pagan Name?

Some people are now saying Yahweh is a pagan name connected linguistically through Latin with the false deity Jupiter. In addition, they say there is a consort (wife) who was worshiped along with a Yahweh idol. Therefore—as their false logic goes—Yahweh must be a pagan name, too.

The idea that Yahweh should not be used due to pagan polytheistic usage of, not only the Name, but also the titles "Elohim" or "El" (with or without consorts), is to forget what Israel did when they came out of Egypt. When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to Yahweh," Exodus 32:5 ESV. They actually called the golden image, "Yahweh."

The arguments against Yahweh, because some are now saying the name is pagan, is really no different than the arguments used against His Title "El" or "Elohim" which we've addressed in our mini-study, Is 'Elohim' a Pagan Title?

While we all most likely speak with an accent concerning the Father's Name, let's not give attention to those who want to find various ways to promote their spelling or pronunciations. Not even the Jehovah witnesses are using such tactics to promote their usage of "Jehovah." They have simply said, in the past, "While inclining to view the pronunciation of 'Yahweh' as the more correct way, we have retained the form 'Jehovah' because of peoples familiarity with it since the 14th century." New World Bible Translation Committee, Feb. 9th, 1950, New York, N.Y.

They are to be credited and given some respect, because they at least acknowledge the heavenly Father has a Name and not just titles. Of interest, a prominent Seventh Day Adventist proclaimed "Jehovah" in a recently broadcasted message, even though their own dictionary dedicated a couple pages to explain why the Father's Name is "Yahweh."

We will, in the future, most likely see more variations of Yahweh's Name come up. We just need to endure and acknowledge that our Savior will correct things when He returns. Let us look up as the day approaches.

His Name holds the Father's Name and He has brought us Salvation. To this One all the prophets bear witness, that through His Name, everyone believing in Him does receive forgiveness of sins, Acts 10:43 TS. Having become as much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent Name than they, Hebrews 1:4 NASB.

And it hath come to pass, every one who calleth in the Name of Yahweh is delivered, for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there is an escape, As Yahweh hath said, and among the remnants whom Yahweh is calling! Joel 2:32 YLT. (See also Phil. 2:9-11; John 3:18; 5:43; Acts 4:12; 5:28; Rev. 14:1).

Here is the patience of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of Yahweh and the faith of Yahshua.

Meeting on 24th, Melbourne, Australia

Keeper and Teacher of The Law

If Yahshua the Messiah came to do away with the laws of Yahweh, then there is no longer any sin, because sin is the transgression of the law (John 3:4). If there is no longer sin, then there is no need for a Savior.

The truth is, there is a forgiveness of sins that Yahshua's sacrificial blood brings, but it does not do away with the law as is so often taught in Christian faith today.

Do we then make void the law through faith? Elohim forbid: yea, we establish the law, Romans 3:31 (NASB used throughout).

James says faith is dead without works in James 2:17; and these works can easily be identified in 2 Timothy 3:15-17. The fundamental 10 Commandments of Scripture are found in chapter 20 of Exodus and chapter 4 of Deuteronomy. If we want to condense those down we can do so by considering the first five as pointing us to Yahweh and the last five toward our fellow man.

Yahshua, who knew the law completely, presented these two great commands. The common element noted in both is love. Matthew 22:36-40,

Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" And He said to him, "YOU SHALL LOVE YAHWEH YOUR ELOHIM WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND. This is the great and foremost commandment. The second is like it, YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF. On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets.

The word "depend" is translated from a word that means "hang," like as in hanging a door by the "hinges" to the house. Love is not separate from the house nor the door.

Is love just an emotional feeling? What standard is there in a feeling, if not connected with obedience? What does the Father think? What will He do? ...showing loving kindness to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments, Exodus 20:6.

1 John 5:2-5, By this we know that we love the children of Yahweh, when we love Yahweh and observe His commandments. For this is the love of Yahweh, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome. For whatever is born of Elohim overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is the one who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Yahshua is the Son of Yahweh?

Love and keep His commandments. Love is said to be supreme, and it's true, but it is not supreme if the instructions and will of Yahweh are ignored. That is the missing point in so many love, grace, and faith messages being promoted today. The Messiah kept the law, in love, grace, and faith! We are to do the same.

Daniel's Prophecy

THOSE THAT HAVE INSIGHT
(Daniel 11:33-35; 12:3, 10):

1. Will give understanding. 2. Will fall by the sword, fire and plunder for many days. 3. Will be given some help by Yahweh at this time (but, many will follow with hypocrisy, flattery and insincerity). 4. Will fall to be refined and purified. 5. Will shine brightly like the expanse of heaven. 6. Will lead many to righteousness and be like the stars of heaven. 7. Will understand.

Yahshua or Yeshua?

“...it became customary not to use Y[a]shua’s correct name but intentionally and consciously to use the distortion ‘Yeshu,’ because at some point someone realized that ‘Yeshu’ is also an acronym consisting of the first letters of the Hebrew insult, ‘Yimach sh’mo v’zikhro’ (‘May his name and memory be blotted out’; the words adapted and expand the last phrase of Psalm 109:13).”

Jewish New Testament Commentary, by David H. Stern (page 5)

“In the Babylonian Talmud, a collection of Jewish oral traditions from about A.D. 200-500, we read: On the even of the Passover Yeshu ... was hanged. For forty days before the execution took place, a herald went forth and cried. ‘He is going forth to be stoned because he has practised sorcery and enticed Israel with apostasy. Anyone who can say anything in his favour, let him come forward and plead on his behalf.’ But since nothing was brought forward in his favour he was hanged...” The Journey from Texts to Translations, by Paul D. Wegner (page 133)

Obituary for Marilyn Sue Taylor

Marilyn Sue (Huffman) Taylor, of Rolla, Missouri passed away Monday, October 15, 2018 at the age of 79. She was born on March 3, 1939 in Rolla, Missouri to the late Lester and Ethel (Mansbridge) Huffman.

Marilyn attended grade and high school at Rolla and graduated in 1957. She worked in the family business her parents established as the Huffman Trailer Courts and Sales in 1948. Marilyn married Waymon Max Taylor in 1963 in Vichy, MO and to this union three children were born.

Marilyn and Waymon were dedicated servants in awakening people all around them to the truths of our Almighty Creator’s word to come out of the deception of this worldly system. They both had moral standards and a love for his people. Their goal was to awaken his people to serve the Almighty with the Hebrew names not the Greek; the creator of life instead of the lust of the flesh and eyes and pride of life to allow the wonderful Savior to be our daily instructor to walk with him on the narrow path of salvation into his kingdom of eternal life instead of the broad road of destruction and deceptive ways. Clean dietary law; His called out Feast days that show the story of Salvation. They hosted gatherings and were great in assistance, an encouragement to all they came in contact with. Everyone has enjoyed listening and singing with her playing the piano and accordion.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Waymon Max Taylor; parents, Lester and Ethel (Mansbridge) Huffman; son, Kevin Michael Taylor; daughter Lorea Maxine; a sister, Melody Ann (Huffman) Allen Pratt and one brother, Floyd Huffman. Surviving relatives are her loving daughter, Melissa G. Taylor; nephew, Shawn Allen and his son Cameron Allen; many relatives, many brethren and sisters of the Faith, and many business associates that have become also a family of friends.

For since the beginning of the world, men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eyes seen, O El, beside thee, what He hath prepared for him that waiteth for Him, Isaiah 64:4. As a second witness, we read: Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which El hath prepared for them that love Him, 1 Corinthians 2:9.

A place prepared by Yahshua and reserved for them who, to their end, faithfully endured infirmities, reproaches necessities, persecutions, distresses and confessed themselves, but pilgrims and strangers desiring a better country, that is, an heavenly, and looking for a city which has foundations and who now, await the reward of having finished their course: release from the sorrows of this world. And, in addition, a Crown of Life (Matt. 10:22; 2 Cor. 12:10; Heb. 11:13, 16, 10; 1 Tim. 4:7-8).

Others, dead in sins and trespasses; their understanding darkened and they, past feeling - their consciences seared with a hot iron - will think, that what is set, ethereally, and beyond expectations, is but an everlasting extension of making provision for the affections and lusts of the flesh unknowing, and uncaring to know, that what awaits them are the fruits of their doing: indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish (Eph. 4:18, 19; 1 Tim. 4:2; Rom. 13:14; Gal. 5:24; Rom. 2:8, 9).
