Feast of Tabernacles Photos ...,cont.

We were grateful to have baptized a new member in the body of Messiah (Jovan Watkins) during the Feast, along with a wedding (Anthony and Jovan Johnson). Moreover, we appointed a new deacon (Lucas Bentley). And during the Eighth Day (the Last Great Day) we were blessed with news that Mary, Deacon Lucas' fiancé was approved to come to the United States from the Philippines. We also had a visitor we hadn't seen in two decades whom we were glad to see. Overall, we were very pleased with this particular Feast. It was Spirit-filled with many joyful experiences. We also inaugurated a Pulpit Exchange program to promote more unity, inviting elders and deacons from other assemblies to minister to us, as well as going out and presenting messages. Elder David Brett, in the middle of the Feast, went to Yahweh's Assembly In Messiah in Rocheport, Missouri to present a message which was well received.

Serious Mail Delays Experienced

Life is not without problems. It has come to our attention that many of our mail recipients have been experiencing serious delays in getting our mail. Some have even received our monthly newsletter three weeks after we mail them out (it should only take 3 days!). Indeed, we saw this personally, recently, when mailing Elder John Reece an article by regular postal mail which shockingly took two weeks for him to receive. He only lives 90 miles from the Assembly. A recent article by Yahoo News detailed this situation, specifically mentioning Missouri as one of the states having the most problems with USPS (United States Postal Service). Please bear with us. We are not happy with this situation at all, but it appears there is currently nothing we can do. Let's pray that Yahweh will resolve this situation.

Bless Israel, and be Blessed

Genesis 12:3 And I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.

Genesis 27:29 May peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you; be master of your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, and blessed be those who bless you.

Numbers 24:9 He crouches, he lies down as a lion, and as a lion, who dares rouse him? Blessed is everyone who blesses you, and cursed is everyone who curses you.

Short Stories

A clear conscience fears no exposure. Very many, however, live with fear of exposure and devote very much of their lives toward covering some transgression, unknowing there is an Immutable Law that reads, he that covers his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy, Proverbs 28:13.

Yes, Yahweh has purposed that a man's sin should find him out (Num. 32:23), and why? so that he may have opportunity to confess himself and obtain mercy and find grace to help him forsake his sin.

Indeed, there is nothing concealed but what won't be revealed ... either during the life that now is, or later at Judgment. But better for men, their sins should be absolved ... now, before Judgment rather than become subject to Judgment.

Nevertheless, the most of men, because of their pride will languish in fear of exposure, exacerbating their trespass by living a lie that risks injury to relationships; that imperils health and wellness of being; that yields to financial distress; that advances litigation or criminal prosecution and in the end, manifests it had been better to have had the answer of a good conscience, void of offense by having provided things honest in the sight of Yahweh and before men.

Gone with the Wind? And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a Rushing Mighty Wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting, Acts 2:2

More, much more, than a movie title – certain, about an hundred and twenty ... unsettled, startled, shaken, mystified? This 'Little' Turbulence was a good thing. And with It, men's destinies were being redirected from a course toward perdition.

Some even, posited these certain, about an hundred and twenty – and later, the proselytes made by them – had turned the world upside down (Acts 17:6) ... these, having now been released from their ten-day sequester by a sound from heaven as of a Rushing Mighty Wind, blowing where It listeth and filling all, dispatching them even to the far corners of the earth.

Gone with the Wind where It will ~ Yahweh's work in the world, took them far ... no, jolted and drove them from the familiarity of their comfort zones into the wilderness (of this world), to some place new to teach all nations, to baptize them, to instruct them that opposed themselves.

Perhaps, they might be redeemed, saved, and delivered from the snare of the dEvil and likewise experience to themselves, a sound from heaven as of a Rushing Mighty Wind and afterward also, be Gone with the Wind, taken far, jolted and driven from the familiarity of their comfort zones into the wilderness (of this world) to set aright, the course of whosoever would.
