WHO WAS TIMOTHY?

We find mention of Timothy mostly in the Letters of the Apostle Paul (Shaul in the Hebrew), and in the book of Acts. Timothy was like a son to Paul, as Paul referred to him as “my true son in the faith.” Timothy grew up in the city of Lystra, located in the country known as Turkey (Asia Minor). He heard about Yahshua when Paul went there to preach. Along with his mother and grandmother, Lois and Eunice, Timothy became a believer. When Paul returned to Lystra a few years later, he found Timothy had grown into a fine young man, strong in the faith. So Paul invited Timothy to travel with him on his missionary journeys.

Later, Paul felt comfortable putting Timothy in charge of the assembly in Ephesus. Regrettably, Timothy had to deal with many problems in the assembly. But Paul sent him letters of advice. First and Second Timothy have served as guidebooks for assembly workers ever since.

One of the problems that Timothy faced is the fact that there were no assembly buildings to meet in at the time. So people had to meet in various homes. Timothy needed to make sure that everyone believed the same thing. It was so easy for false ideas to creep in. At first, Timothy did not feel confident about taking on this important role. But Paul told him, “You are young. But don’t let anyone treat you as less important. Be a good example to everyone, and show them how to live properly. Show them with your words, your love, your faith, and your pure life. Remember to use the gift that Yahweh gave you!” We can learn a lot from what Paul told Timothy.

The Hebrew word for “Hope” is “Qavah.” It sounds like: “Key-vah.”

The first Ancient Hebrew letter “Q” looks like: (back of the head). It stands for the words: Completed Circle, Last or Final, Behind, Follows.

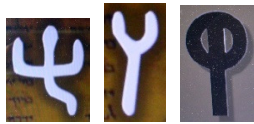

The next Ancient Hebrew letter “V” looks like: (a tent peg). It stands for the words: Add, Secure, Hook, Connect.

The last Ancient Hebrew letter “H” looks like: (a man with arms raised up). It stands for the words: Look, Reveal, Breath.

To make the word “Hope,” the three letters are written together like this:

. In Hebrew, words are read from right to left – just opposite of English words.

The first two letters, “Q” and “V” make up the Hebrew word “Qav,” pronounced “Kahv,” which means “Rope” or “Strength.” When setting up a tent, the last action to complete is securing it with ropes and pegs, which make the tent sturdy and stable.

Hope follows what comes after the nail, or what comes from strength. We are made strong when we are connected to Yahweh through the “Nail” – Yahshua. We can endure the trials of life no matter what. When we realize that Yahweh gives us strength, then hope comes when we are secured to Him and His ways.

WONDERFUL!
