"You Didn't Choose Me"

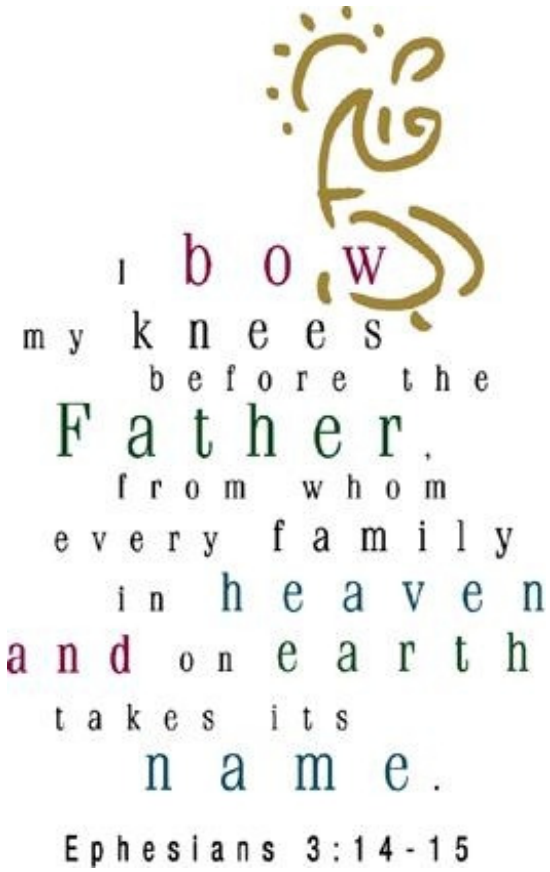

(By E.L. Purvis, deceased)

"You didn't choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever you should ask of the Father in my Name, He may give it to you." (John 15:16)

The fruit to be produced by Yahweh's people is to be an example to non-believers, so that they might desire to belong to Yahweh's spiritual family. He chose Israel as His witness.

This is the GREAT COMMISSION that commands us to reach all nations and teach them Yah's Truths. Sadly, we note the opposite has occurred. Rather than learning what the Bible demands of us that we may inherit eternal life, and then witnessing these truths to the world, we have capitulated before pagan doctrines, and our beliefs are hardly recognizable.

Secondly, as part of the Great Commission, we are told to baptize them into the NAME of Yahshua, the only Prince of Peace. "Yahshua" is the only Name under heaven by which we may be saved! One Name, not three, as in the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These are titles—not names. Consequently, we cannot incorporate them into our baptism.

In John 5:43 we read: "I have come in MY Father's Name…" This indicates that He bore the Name of Yahweh, our Father in heaven. Then we read another quote of our Savior, Yahshua, the Messiah: "But the comforter, even the Holy Spirit, which the Father will send in My Name, shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things I have said to you."

When we use the Name SINGULAR, of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit (which is Yahweh's power), we are including IN ONE Name the Father, Son, and the power of the Holy Spirit in the Name by which we must receive the gift of the Holy Spirit by the laying on of hands after baptism.

April 20th, 1999 is a date that many people will remember—the Columbine Shooting. Darrell Scott, the father of Rachel Scott, a victim of the Columbine High School shootings in Littleton Colorado, was invited to address the House "Judiciary" Committee's subcommittee. What he said to our national leaders during this special session of Congress was painfully truthful. They were not prepared for what he was to say, nor was it well-received. But it needs to be heard by every parent, every psychologist, and every so-called expert! These courageous words spoken by Darrell Scott are powerful, penetrating, and deeply personal. There is no doubt that (Yahweh) sent this man as a voice crying in the wilderness, The following is a portion of the transcript:

"Since the dawn of creation there has been both good and evil in the hearts of men and women. We all contain seeds of kindness or the seeds of violence. The death of my wonderful daughter, Rachel Joy Scott, and the death of that heroic teacher, and the other eleven children who died must not be in vain. Their blood cries out for answers.

The first recorded act of violence was when Cain slew his brother, Abel, out in the field. The villain was not the club he used. Neither was it the NCA, the National Club Association. The true killer was Cain, and the reason for the murder could only be found in Cain's heart. In the days that followed the Columbine tragedy, I was amazed at how quickly fingers began to be pointed at groups such as the NRA. I am not a member of the NRA. I am not a hunter. I do not even own a gun. I am not here to represent or defend the NRA because I don't believe that they are responsible for my daughter's death. Therefore, I do not believe that they need to be defended. If I believed they had anything to do with Rachel's murder, I would be their strongest opponent.

I am here today to declare that Columbine was not just a tragedy—it was a spiritual event that should be forcing us to look at where the real blame lies! Much of the blame lies here in this room. Much of the blame lies behind the pointing fingers of the accusers themselves. I wrote a poem just four nights ago that express my feelings best. This was written way before I knew I would be speaking here today:

'Your words are empty air—you've stripped away our heritage. You've outlawed simple prayer. Now gunshots fill our classrooms, and precious children die. You seek for answers everywhere, and ask the question, "Why?" You regulate restrictive laws, through legislative creed, and yet you fail to understand that (YAHWEH) IS WHAT WE NEED!

Many of our major colleges began as theological seminaries. This is historical fact. What has happened to us as a nation? We have refused to honor (Yahweh) and in doing so we open the doors to hatred and violence. And when something as terrible as Columbine's tragedy occurs, politicians immediately look for a scapegoat such as the NRA. They immediately seek to pass more restrictive laws that contribute to erode away our personal and private liberties. We do not need more restrictive laws.

[The Shooters] would not have been stopped by metal detectors. No amount of gun laws can stop someone who spends months planning this type of massacre. The real villain lies within our own hearts. Political posturing and restrictive legislature are not the answers. The young people of our nation hold the key. There is a spiritual awakening taking place that will not be squelched...we do not need more million dollar church buildings built, while the basic needs of people are being ignored. We DO need a change of heart...as my son Craig lay under that table in the school library and saw his two friends murdered, he did not hesitate to pray in school. I defy any law or politician to deny him that right! I challenge every young person in America, and around the world, to realize that on April 20th, 1999, at Columbine High School, prayer was brought back into our schools. Do not let the many prayers offered by those students to be in vain. Dare to move into the new millennium with a sacred disregard for legislation that violates your (Yahweh)-given right to communicate with Him. To those of you who would point the finger at the NRA, I give you a sincere challenge. Dare to examine your own heart before casting the first stone! My daughter's death will not be in vain!"

Do what the media did not—let the nation hear this man's speech.

FAMILY & FRIENDS ALL WELCOME

Friendship

Friendship is a special gift of kindness and much delight,
It seeks to be well-favored, rather than to do one harm
It focuses on others, and reaches out its hand
Encouraging the fallen, to arise and take a stand
The person who has friendship abiding in his soul, has a special gift of love,
More precious than gold
Such a one looks not within, but outward does he see
With eyes of gentle kindness, for a help he wants to be
May this special gift of love, be one we all seek for
So that we may be a friend, to the trodden and the poor

Points to ponder

— Did you ever notice that grandchildren don't carry pictures of their grandparents? Respect your grandparents. Write to them! Always remember to thank them, and tell them you love them.

— People don't plan to fail. They just fail to plan.

— Happiness is inward and not outward. It does not depend on what we have, but on what we are.

— Above all else, guard your affections. For they influence everything else in your life. Proverbs 4:23.

Very Old-fashioned "See-through" Pie

I found this recipe in an 1800's cookbook. It was also known as "Transparent Pie." Kentucky frontier wives needed to be creative with what they had on hand to feed their families. Nobody knows the true origin of this recipe, but some frugal farm wife created a wonderful desert with minimal ingredients. It became quite popular in the 1930's, when it was offered to Maysville patrons by Magee's Bakery.

1 unbaked pie shell
1 stick melted butter
2 cups sugar
1 cup heavy cream or whole milk
4 eggs, beaten
2 T. flour
1 t. vanilla extract

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees.
2. Cream the butter and sugar in a medium mixing bowl.
3. Add the cream, eggs, flour, and vanilla in this order, mixing well after each addition.
4. Pour into pie shell.
5. Bake for about 40 minutes until golden brown.
